

Anti War/ Anti Drone Protest April 22, 2011 2:30-5:30 pm Hancock Air National Guard Base Mattydale, New York (near Syracuse)

These drones are controlled and directed via satellite from seven bases in the US. Hancock Air National Guard Base in upstate New York is a key facility.

Come to Hancock to protest the war in Afghanistan and the use of drones in Afghanistan and Pakistan. Join peace organizations on Friday April 22 at the main gate of Hancock Air National Guard Base.

Brooklyn For Peace will have a bus leaving from Grand Army Plaza at 8:30am. Tickets are $20. For tickets or information please call 718 768 6171 or 718 624 5921 or email nowar@brooklynpeace.org.

To pay on-line by PayPal, go to www.brooklynpeace.org/events.php

Endorsed by : Syracuse Peace Council, The Buffalo Interfaith Peace Network, Kathy Kelly of Voices for Creative Nonviolence, The Peace Education Project, Peace Action of Central New York, Scarfsforpeace, Western NY Peace Center, Women in Black, NYSDAP , The Upstate Anti-war Network, Slocum House, Rochester Against War, Peace Action & Education of Metro Justice, The Gandhi Institute, Brooklyn For Peace, Broome County Peace Action, Ithaca Catholic Worker, Peacenow Ithaca , Veterans for Peace Buffalo Ch 128 , Veterans for Peace, Ithaca Chapter, Vietnam Veterans Against the War Ithaca Chapter, Military Families Speak Out, World Can't Wait

